Franklin D. Beahm Honored for Accomplishments in Law

Franklin Beahm, recognized by Martindale-Hubbell as an AV-rated lawyer, specializes in health care law

NEW ORLEANS, LA, March 4, 2011, Franklin D. Beahm, Attorney, has been recognized by Cambridge Who's Who for demonstrating dedication, leadership and excellence in law.

Mr. Beahm has 33 years of legal experience and specializes in health care law. In his current capacity, he is responsible for making court appearances, advising clients, and managing correspondences. Recognized by Martindale-Hubbell as an AV-rated lawyer, he enjoys problem solving and the diversity of each day. His success can be attributed to his hard work and education.

In 1977, Mr. Beahm received a JD from Tulane University Law School. His affiliations include the Louisiana Health Council, the Louisiana Society of Attorneys, the Health Lawyers Association, and the Society of Councilors of Law. For his accomplishments, he has been honored with numerous listings in Marquis Who's Who. Outside of work, the Boy Scouts of America awarded him with the rank of Eagle Scout. Mr. Beahm aspires to expand his practice in the future. For more information, visit <http://www.beahm.com>.
